"The best-written, best-plotted, deepest, most daring and funniest new play in recent years."

—The Wall Street Journal

January 27-February 28 ■ Topfer Theatre

As the only deaf member of his loud, sharp-tongued, British family, sweet-natured Billy has spent much of his life feeling out of place. But when he falls in love with a young woman on the brink of deafness, he finally finds true connection. Tribes is a smart, funny play about listening—and being heard. Contains adult language.
