1. political affiliations or beliefs of the student or the student's parents;
2. mental and psychological problems of the student or the student's family;
3. sexual behaviors and attitudes;
4. illegal, anti-social, self-incrimination, and demeaning behavior;
5. critical appraisals of other individuals with whom students have close family relationships;
6. legally recognized privileged or analogous relationships, such as those of lawyers, physicians, and ministers;
7. religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or student's parents; or
8. income (other than that required to determine a child's eligibility for participation in a program or for receiving financial assistance under such a program).
