

SCHOOL-SPONSORED MATERIALS

All publications edited, printed, or distributed in the name of or within the School shall be under the control of the Superintendent and the Board. All publications approved and issued by individual departments shall be part of the instructional program, under the supervision of a sponsor, and shall be carefully edited to reflect the ideals and expectations of the citizens of the School. The department supervisor shall be responsible for all matters pertaining to the organization, issuance, and sale of such publications and any other publication procedure, subject to the Superintendent's approval.

ADVERTISING

Advertising in individual school publications may be accepted from bona fide business firms, subject to the approval of professional employees exercising editorial supervision over the publications. Advertising deemed inappropriate for student readers or that advertises products presenting a health hazard, such as alcohol or tobacco products, shall not be accepted.

Student participation in the publication of school newspapers, yearbooks, literary magazines, and similar publications is encouraged by the School as an educational experience. Student publications shall be directed by advisors and shall strive to meet high standards of journalism.

COMPLAINTS

Students who have a complaint regarding the procedures or a professional decision affecting the content or style of a school-sponsored publication shall present that complaint in accordance with FNG.
